Police Lieutenant Interviews

Mr. Healey noted that no appointments would be made this evening. Each candidate will be given the opportunity to provide information about themselves, background, time with the department, present position, why they would make a good Lieutenant, followed by questions from the Board. Each candidate will then be given the opportunity to provide a closing statement.

Interviews took place in this order:

- David A. Petitti
- Richard F. Corcoran

- Ryan P. O'Shea
- Darren M. McAdams

Post interviews, the Board commented on the four candidates interviewed stating that each are significant leaders within the department, extremely professional, talented, experienced, superb selections for the position. Extraordinarily talented candidates that the Town is lucky to have.

Mr. Healey stated that the quality of the leaders in the department makes this process a pleasure.

Appointments

No appointments this evening.

Selectmen/Town Administrator Reports

Ms. Monsegur – Nothing to report.

Mr. Mayo - Nothing to report.

Ms. Power – Nothing to report.

Ms. Johnson - Nothing to report.

Mr. Healey – Stated that it is stressful to see the impact on government workers during the shutdown. Opportunities are available to assist federal workers adversely effected by the actions in DC. Trying to come up with ideas to assist. Next week, will provide steps being taken to assist fellow citizens in a tough spot.

Announced that the Water Company Acquisition Study Committee is meeting this evening down the hall. Encouraged participation.

The next Board of Selectmen meeting will take place on January 22, 2019.
